

THE OPENING CEREMONY

At the beginning of The Games, the athletes enter the stadium, wearing their national uniform. The athletes walk together as a country behind a banner displaying the country's name and flag. The countries enter the stadium in alphabetical order. Greece is always first, as a reminder that the Games began in Greece many years ago. The host country always enters the stadium last.

Activity

1. Cut out the flags and the name tags.
2. Put the countries in alphabetical order.
3. Match the correct flag to each country.
